I went in for my first time for a massage. The office was organized and clean. The staff was all very nice. My rating is based on the execution of the massage. The technician did very little muscle manipulation. Her technique was more of a rubbing. The exact reason I choose a chiropractor office verse a salon is to avoid the rubbing. It was To the point I feel like she rubbed a few layers of skin off. It was not relaxing or helpful. Now to look for an actual massage...
